

Statement of Purpose for Admission

I have decided to apply for an engineering degree program at Bradford shire University due to its academic reputation world-wide. The engineering program taught at this University is diverse and accredited by all the engineering firms. I got an opportunity to speak with the alumni of this University which is why I made my mind to take an admission in Bradford Shire University this year.